ROCHESTER BEATEN IN DUAL MEET BY SCORE OF 70 - 47

Dual Meet on Steuben Field a Decisive Victory for Buff and Blue Track Men. Return of Winter Prevents Record Smashing. Lee, Potter, and Jessup Star for Hamilton.

In a cold brisk wind which brought with it frequent flurries of snow the Hamilton Track Team won an easy victory over the Rochester Team on Steuben Field last Saturday afternoon. The extreme cold and the high wind prevented good records from being made. The best time was made in the 440-yard dash by F. Lee of Hamilton who ran it in 53 4-5 sec., which owing to the wind and the slow track was exceptionally good. Jessup and F. Lee were Hamilton's highest point winners, each winning two firsts. The Rochester team showed up especially strong in the hurdles and the distances, winning first in each of these events. In the weights, jumps and dashes Hamilton had a decided advantage over the Rochester men.

A victory over Rochester with a lead of 23 points came as a pleasant surprise to Coach Risley and the Hamilton men who had feared a bad defeat. Misled by the glaring accounts of Rochester's track prospects which had appeared in the newspapers, the crowd of Hamilton rooters, shivering with the cold, assembled on the field with misgivings as to the outcome of the meet. After the first few events, however, when Lee and Potter in the sprints and Jessup in the weights had shown their form, it was evident that the day was Hamilton's.

Features of the Meet.

In the 440-yard dash "Fritz" Lee of Hamilton ran a splendid race making the fastest time of the meet with 53 4-5 sec. Running behind Wall until the last half of the lap, Lee pulled away from the Rochester sprinter with a whirlwind finish. Shaul scored third for Hamilton. The 220-yard dash came next in excitement and won for George Potter his reputation as a sprinter. Potter finished two yards ahead of Wall with Mowris of Hamilton running a close third. Another feature of the meet was the fight for second and third places at the finish of the half mile. Rugg, Captain of the Rochester team, made an easy first. Carmer and Hahn, who had been running third and fourth, respectively, finished second and third with a brilliant sprint, passing Barry of Rochester in the last ten yards of the race.

Banks, Hamilton, and Gucker, Rochester, after a close contest tied in the high jump, Callahan winning third for Hamilton. The broad jump caused a good deal of comment through Lee's leap of 20ft. 7in., which however, was called a foul because he stepped an inch beyond the take-off. Banks, who had never jumped before, won first for Hamilton with Dayton a close second.

In the pole vault Bushnell scored five more points for Hamilton and made his highest record, vaulting 9ft. 8in. This is the first year that Bushnell has vaulted. Clapp of Hamilton and LeRoy of Rochester tied at 9ft. 6in for second place.

Jessup Strong.

Ted Jessup outclassed Gay of Rochester in both the shot-put and the hammer-throw, while LaForce made third in the shot-put and Cal Thompson second in the hammer-throw. In the two mile race Guthrie of Rochester won an easy first. Keddy and Mattoon of Hamilton, however, ran a plucky race and finished second and third. Rugg won the mile but Prescott and Nichols, making second and third places, scored four points for Hamilton. In the 120-yard hurdles Baird of Rochester finished first with Leavenworth of Hamilton second. In the 220-yard hurdles Clark of Hamilton came in third.

TEAM BREAKS EVEN ON WESTERN TRIP

RALLY IN NINTH WINS FIRST

Hobart Beaten 6-4 by Final Inning Spurt. Rochester Takes Saturday's Game by 8-1 Score.

Hitting in the pinch coupled with fast fielding won the decision for the Hamilton men at Geneva, and by scoring four runs in the ninth they took the first game of the trip, 6 to 4. With two runs needed to tie and the lower end of the batting order up at the beginning of the ninth things did not look extremely bright, but the team had that last punch known as the do-or-die kick. Griffith was the man to start things and "Cheese" carried on the good work by driving out a single through short which scored the tieing runs and assured a victory. The pitching was nothing marvelous on either side, but it must be admitted that Ogden pitched a heady game. With men on bases he tightened up, and but for an error and a lucky hit the two runs in the first inning would have been enough. Griffith covered second in great shape, accepting five hard chances without a wobble. The error credited to Cheese was a hard chance, and can easily be overlooked for he made a number of dandy stops during the game.

The visitors started scoring in the first frame due mainly to the wildness of Brooks. Then with two men on bases Ogden came up with the idea that he should win his own game. Hamilton supporters in the stand were calling for a hit, and thereupon "Jug" leaned against a good one and sent it to the fence in deep left, scoring Gow and McLouth. Turnbull ended the inning by rolling to third.

The team did not score again until the ninth. With Hobart two runs to the good the team went to bat in the last inning determined to do something and as a result they took the game then and there. Griffith clouted the first ball pitched over the left

WIN TODAY!

The College was disappointed and surprised at the outcome of Saturday's game with Rochester but it is willing to forgive and forget provided that the team wins from Rochester this afternoon. The men do not feel that they were beaten by a superior team. They played on a strange diamond, under extremely adverse weather conditions, and in a critical moment things went wrong. Perhaps some of the new men on the team were a bit nervous, had a case of stage-fright in other words, on their first trip with the team. But today, on the home grounds, with a preconception of what it is running up against, everything is in the team's favor. The College wants that game and wants it bad, and is going out there to help the team get it.

Interscholastic Week.

Beginning with Thursday of this week the College enters upon an epoch in its career, an annual one to be sure, none but the less—perhaps more—important for that reason. Interscholastic Week is one of the three or four red-letter periods in the College year, comparable to the Union football game, Junior Prom, or Commencement Week. The College has decided that it shall be so, and each year it goes to considerable expense and a great amount of labor to make the whole affair a success.

This year is no exception to the rule. The Committee in charge has worked hard, and as the result of its work representatives from fourteen schools are to be on the Hill the latter part of this week to take part in the Interscholastic Meet on Steuben Field Saturday. Besides these, there will be a number of men from still other schools for the most part to speak in the Interacademic Declamation Contest held by the College. In short, the College may expect to find over a hundred men as its guests on Friday and Saturday, men who live within easy access of Clinton and who are fitting themselves to enter college within the next year or two.

Do the men in College realize the opportunity that is being thrown in their way at this time? Do they realize that Interscholastic Week is designed for the sole purpose of bringing possible future college students to the Hill so as to show them what a grand little old place this is, what a corking lot of fellows call Hamilton "Alma Mater," and in general, from every point of view, what a fine college Hamilton is for a young fellow to make up his mind to come to just as soon as he can get the necessary papers from his prep school?

That is what Interscholastic Week is for, and it can fulfill its purpose only in so far as the men in College, the undergraduates, put themselves out to show their guests, these future college men, all these things. There has sometimes been a tendency to look upon the actual entertaining of these visitors as somewhat of a bore. Perhaps a man, or a group of men, is not entirely satisfied with the guest who has fallen to his lot to entertain, and so he pays just as little attention to him as he decently can and looks forward longingly to Sunday and separation. Does anyone suppose for a minute that such treatment goes unheeded or misunderstood by any high school boy? That boy will go away from Hamilton resolving not only never to come again himself, but to put it out of the mind of any other boy whom he finds considering it.

So much for the theory. For the practical side of it, let every man not only do his utmost to give all the guests a good time individually, but be on hand at the Y. M. C. A Reception Friday night, and especially, for there is an especial tendency to slight affairs on the Hill on Saturday nights, let every man without fail be present at the Annual College Smoker of Interscholastic Week on Saturday night. That event is the climax of the whole week. In order that this week, with all its labor of preceding weeks as well, may be a success, the whole College must be on hand for the final send-off Saturday night.

As a last admonition before the dawn of this approaching epoch, a few thoughts cribbed from last year's Life would not be amiss:

"Have you Alexander Hamilton's life story memorized? Can you go down into the Cemetery and walk right up to Skenandoah's monument without seeming to look for it? Can you give an accurate and detailed account of the founding of the College from the time the first sled rounded the Arbor to the last moving-up night celebration?

"Because, if you can't, it's time to 'bohn up.' Interscholastic will get you if you don't watch out!"

"Gym-Showing."

It seems advisable that some changes be made in the system of underclassman "gym-showing" at present in vogue in College during the early weeks of first term, and since on the first night after the term opens in the fall the "royal gaboo-oo-oon" is sure to be heard on the Campus indicating the opening of the "season," now is the time, if ever, to decide on definite limits and certain definite rules for the sport.

Life believes that the time-honored gym-show could be made to serve a much more dignified and worthy place among underclassman activities than it at present holds. Rather in sorrow than in anger, it must be admitted that the custom has degenerated—not perhaps from what it has been in recent years—but from what it ought to be. At present it is nothing more nor less than a free-for-all scramble between the Sophomore and Freshman classes to see which can catch and paddle and if possible make sport of the more of the other's men. The worst of it is, the sport part of it is as a rule painfully non-existent. A few of the capturers may take some vindictive pleasure in the affair, especially if they have recently been put through the "mill' by the other class, but how often a majority of the spectators go away with the words, "Bum gym-show," on their lips.

The trouble with the whole system is, that there is no discrimination made between the deserving and the undeserving ;the mere matter of numbers is made all-important, and whether a man is "fresh" or not, the factor which should be the chief consideration, is scarcely ever taken into account. Consequently, many men are gym-showed for no other reason than that they belong to their class, which surely is no disgrace to any man in Hamilton College, while on the other hand, many men are missed who might be benefited by the ordeal, or whose subjection to it might at least afford some satisfaction to the community at large. If the thing were made less general, if it were understood that to be gym-showed was something in the nature of a slight disgrace or a rebuke at least, it would be a thing more to be avoided and consequently would have more of the desired subduing effect than it has had, and would be an effective instrument against the tabooed but ever-prevalent "freshness."

In order to make such an instrument of it, it would be necessary, or advisable anyway, to set the "open season" later in the term, so as to allow opportunity for sizing up and determining the eligible men. This would have the further advantage of doing away with the continual disturbance of the Freshman's studying, and the Sophomore's too, for that matter, during the opening weeks of a hard term.

These are merely sugegstions. The details of the new system would have to be worked out by a committee comprising representatives from the three upper classes of next year, that is, from 1914, 1915, and 1916. Life suggests that the presidents of these three classes appoint representatives, two from each class, to confer together on the subject before the end of this month, to decide on what seems to them the best way of arranging the matter of gym-shows, to report the results of their conference, and if approved by the College, to proceed to the framing of rules which shall embody their recommendations.

UTICA SPEAKING CONTEST WON BY CLINTON BOY

For Second Successive Year Local Representative Carries off Honors—Finals Saturday.

The preliminary Declamation Contest held last Friday evening in Utica, closed the list of semi-final contests which have been held throughout the state in preparation for the Interacademic Prize Speaking on Interscholastic Day.

The Utica contest was held in the Auditorium of the Utica Free Academy with Dr. Wood presiding. For the second successive year, Clinton demonstrated the value of Hamilton training by carrying off first place. The first prize was awarded to John A. Jones of Clinton High School, the second to Max Arones of the Utica Free Academy, while Harold Francis O'Keefe of Carthage was chosen alternate. There could be no doubt in the mind of anyone that the contest was distinctly Hamiltonian. Jones, the winner, spoke "The Burdens of War," showing in his strong presentation of the subject the effect of careful preparation. A different although almost as effective rendering of the same subject was given by O'Keefe of Carthage. The second prize winner, Max Arones, spoke a selection entitled "Citizenship." Frank Leon Fear of Holland Patent fell but little behind with a good presentation of Bedenkapp's "The American Oligarchy." In all, eleven schools were represented.

The judges were Spencer Kellogg, '88, William Ross Lee, '00, Fred H. Cookinham, '01, William F. Dowling, '04, and Fred J. Sisson, '04. So close was the contest that it required a long consultation before the judges were able to reach any decision. Several speakers exceeded their time limit and had to be dropped from consideration. A quartette composed of Brown, Burns McGibeny and Felt amused the audience at intervals and McGibeny's pianologs made their usual hit.

The last contest to be heard from was that at Binghamton where Julian Gifford of Sidney High School won first prize and Milton Steele of Binghamton High School second.

SENIOR DEBATERS ANNOUNCED

Friday morning Doctor Stryker announced the appointees for the McKinney Prize Debate, which will be held on June 20. They are: Lyon, Simonds and Stone, on the affirmative, and Batchelor, Groves and Peck on the negative. The order of the speakers is not to be decided until the day of the debate. Blackmar would have received one of the appointments, but was advised by his physician not to accept it. The subject of the debate, as announced earlier, is: "Resolved, That the Panama Canal should be open on equal terms to the vessels of commerce of all naitons.

fielder's head and should have had three bases on the wallop, but was called back by the coacher on first to touch the bag, which he had failed to do in his anxiety to reach third. He managed to reach second safely and was moved to third on two passes, which Gow and Royce worked from Brooks after King had thrown out Miller. With the bases full and the infield playing close, Cheese picked out a nice one and shot it between short and pitcher for a base, scoring Griffith and Gow. Royce went to third on the play, whence he scored on a passed ball. McLouth brought in Cheese with a single to left, but was out, Mickeljohn to Wood, trying to stretch it into a double.

A bit of strategy by Erhardt prevented a score in the first inning. Wood, leading off, picked out a good one which Ogden had grooved and sent it over Turnbull's head to the fence in center. By quick work Wood was held at third, and then Bubo walked up and requested the ball, went over and touched second base. "Runner's out!" says the ump, and the Hobart supporters shriveled.

THE ROCHESTER GAME.

The team that faced Rochester on Saturday did not lokk like the one which had defeated Hobart the day before. Perhaps the cold weather had a good deal to do with it, but ineffective pitching and an abundance of fielding errors, as well as errors of judgment, were the direct cause of the 8-1 set-back received on the Rochester campus. After the good game Friday it was disappointing to see the team fall down. The only chance Royce had to get away with the game was to shut out the Yellow, for his team was lucky to get one run off of the spitball artist, Captain Harding, who walked only one man and allowed but six hits several of which would have been outs but for the strong wind. Royce lacked his usual control, owing largely to poor support on the part of the team.

Royce got out of a bad hole in the third, when with the bases full and nobody out, he tightened up and three pop flies were the result. In the next inning he was not so lucky, however, and the Yellow bagged three counters Palmer led off with a hit into center, but was thrown out, Royce to Griffith, when Harding laid down a bunt. Harding went to second wh en Royce threw the ball to short in the act of winding up. Forsyth was passed and the bases were full when Yorkey got on. Hammel then hit one to Cheese and Harding was forced at the plate. McLouth fumbled Caulkin's grounder and Forsythe scored. A wild pitch sent in Yorkey and when Chesbro walked the bases were again full. Schoen slammed one toward left field, but Cheese got in front of it and would have had the runner by a clever stop and throw had not Erhardt dropped the ball. Hammel scored on the error, but Skiff grounded out to Royce unassisted. In the sixth Hammel again scored on his hit to center which went through Turnbull's legs and Caulkins' two-bagger to left. Palmer made it five and one in the seventh when he singled to right, went to second on a wild pitch, and scored on Forsythe's single to right which got away from Ogden. To make sure of the game Rochester got together and added three more in the eighth. Caulkins hit through McLouth for a base, stole second, went to third when Cheese fumbled Chesebro's roller, and scored on Schoen's hit to center. Chesbro came in when Turnbull's good throw got away from Miller, and Schoen counted while Cheese was throwing out Skiff.

Royce brought in the only Hamilton run in the sixth, when he reached first on his hit to center with one out Gow sent him to second on a single to right, and Cheese scored his captain on a long double to the canvas fence in left field. Gow tried to score too, but was thrown out by Yorkey's peg to the plate.

Rochester will be the attraction this afternoon on the Campus and no doubt the Buff and Blue men will be anxious to get back at the Rochester spit-ball twirler and his teammates. Friday Hobart will be here in another attempt to win their H. "No win, no H this season," is their slogan, and they have yet to get a game.

PREP. LEAGUE GAMES.

Each week the crack of ball and bat in four corners of the state gives evidence that Hamilton's Prep School Baseball League is working with "pep" enough to satisfy expectations. Some hotly-contested championship games are promised. The organization of the Wayne County League has been perfected and includes Palmyra, Newark, Savannah, and Lyons.

Director Dan Chase has on exhibition in his office the big six-foot banners which will be awarded to the champions of each separate league. The cup is expected this week. The final games of the league, it has been definitely decided, will be played here June 7. Four champion teams, from the four leagues, will pair off and each play a game in the morning. In the afternoon the two winners of the morning games will contend for the championship.

Results of league games are drifting slowly into Director Chase's office. The following are results from Wayne County: April 25, Lyons at Palmyra. Score, Palmyra 11, Lyons 4. May 2, Lyons at Newark. Score, Newark 13, Lyons 12.
May 7, Savannah at Palmyra. Forfeited after eight innings to Savannah, 9-0, owing to Palmyra's disagreement with Umpire Colsim. Score at eighth inning, Palmyra 4, Savannah 4. May 2, Lyons at Newark. Score, Newark 13, Lyons 12. May 10, Camden at Oneida. Score, Oneida 10, Camden 4.

HAMILTON LIFE.

Rochester was at a slight disadvantage in the sprints because two point-winners, Kuhnert and Doyle, were unable to accompany the team. Doyle, it is said, runs the 220 in 23sec., while Kuhnert is Rochester's best quarter-miler. Both of these men, it is said, were sure of at least a second place in each of their events.

When interviewed Coach Risley said that he was pleased with the outcome of the meet. "You may say for me," he told the reporter, "that all the men did well, but with good hard practice every day each one of them will do much better than he did last Saturday." The Hamilton men who earned their letters for the first time in the Rochester meet were, Banks, Bushnell and Potter.

Sumary of events:

100-yd. dash: Lee (H) first; Potter (H) second; Wall (R) third. Time 10 3-5sec.

Mile run: Rugg (R) first; Prescott (H) second; Nichols (H) third. Time 5min. 7 2-5sec.

120-yard hurdles: Baird (R) first; Leavenworth (H) second; Gucker (R) third. Time 17sec.

440-yard dash: Lee (H) first; Wall (R) second; Shaul (H) third. Time 53 4-5sec.

220-yard hurdles: Baird (R) first; Remington (R) second; Clark (H) third. Time 30sec.

880-yard run: Rugg (R) first; Carmer (H) second; Hahn (H) third. Time 2min. 10sec.

220-yard dash: Potter (H) first; Wall (R) second Mowris (H) third. Time 25sec.

E. L. S. WINS.

Delta Upsilon lost to the E. L. S. in the second game of the Interfraternity series yesterday afternoon by a score of 12 to 1. The features of the game were Simond's clean hitting, Simp's base stealing, and Doc. E. Hughes' covering of right field with Fatima smoke from his comfortable position on the bleachers. The score:

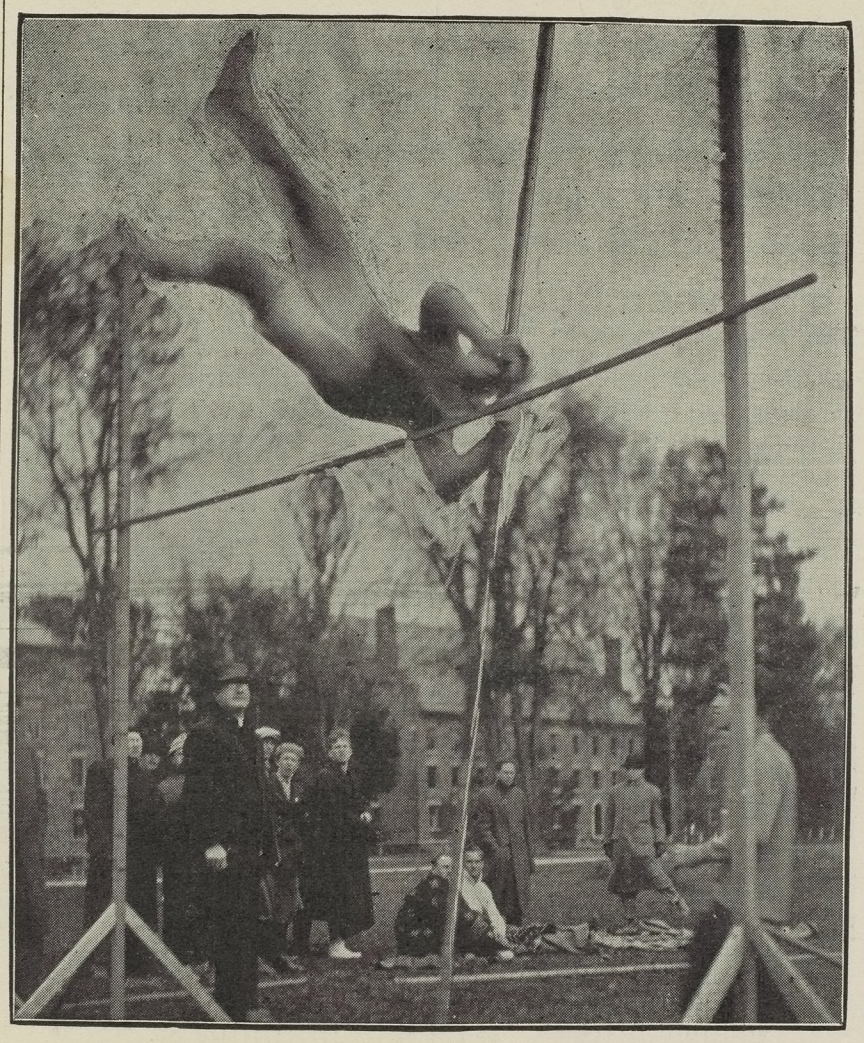
CHESS CLUB ELECTS.

Charles H. Dayton, '14, was re-elected President of the Chess Club last week. No other elections were held. Dayton intends next year to arrange a correspondence match with Colgate, if possible, which will continue throughout the whole year and will be played by the whole club. In the tournament which has been going on this year, Dayton won first place and Clapp second place.

SNAPPED AT THE MEET.



Bushnell (H) Wins the Pole Vault.

INTERSCHOLASTIC WEEK STARTS THURSDAY NOON.

ic Speaking Contest ever held here. There will be thirteen speakers representing high schools from all over the state.

The Big Event.

At 2:15 in the afternoon the first call for the Track Meet will be heard. There are to be over a hundred competitors this year, the largest number ever entered here. The teams are from Albion, Binghamton, Batavia, Clinton, Canton, Cortland, Gouverneur, Griffins Corners, Ilion, Margaretville, Union Springs and Waterloo High Schools; Cazenovia Seminary and St. Johns Preparatory School. Each school is loud in praises of their team and there should be lots of excitement.

After the Meet the Annual Smoker will be held in Commons Hall. The Quartette will vocalize some. Professor Lewis, Samuel Hopkins Adams, and Peck, '13, will speak, after which Dr. Stryker will award the prizes and medals. The awards will be gold, silver and bronze medals for first, second and third place in each event, each medal having the Hamilton seal on one side and the time, place and event engraved on the other. A handsome silver loving cup nine inches in height will be presented to that team which makes the most points in the meet. The first prize for speaking will be $20 and the second $10.

Committee and Officials.

Porter, '13, chairman of the Interscholastic Entertainment Committee, has appointed the following Freshmen to assist the committee: Gardner, Higgins, Jones, Paige, McLean, Robson, Pope and Whitcombe.

E. B. TURNER AT Y. M. C. A.

Sunday afternoon the Rev. E. B. Turner, for twelve years a missionary to Hawaii and now connected with the Bible Teachers' Training School of New York City, spoke in Silliman Hall. His theme was the opportunities for Christian service which are open to the college man at the present time. "It is not necessary to enter the ministry," said Mr. Turner. "There is an unparalleled opportunity for missionary work in China at present. At home there are many opportunities offered in the Northwest, in the rural districts, in the city slums, and in solving the immigration problem and social problems. These can be solved only by Christian men, and college men must appreciate these opportunities."

At next Sunday's meeting Chaplain Groves of the 114th Regiment, who is spending several weeks on the Hill, will speak.

—Charles H. Stone, ex-'09, is with the Harper Brothers Publishing Co. in the text-book department.

The officials for the Meet are: Referee, Wenigmann; Starter, Risley; Clerk of Course, Stone, '13; Track Judges, Professor Brown, Davis, '13, Leavenworth, '14, Robinson, '14: Field Judges (weights), C. Thompson, '13, LaForce, '15; Field Judges (jumps), Prof. Daniel Chase, Gould, '13, Clapp, '14; Head Scorer, Wassung, '13; Scorers, Groves, '13, Wheelock, '13; Timers, Lyon, '13, Kultchar, '13, Ogilvie, '14; Announcer, Batchelor, '13; Inspectors, Carmer, '14, Lee, '14, Ritch, '15, Little, '15; Assistant Clerks of Course, Miller, '16, Groves, '16, Higgins, '16, Gardner, '16, Peck, '16.

Deep Dejection Displaces Wonted Wine and Wassail

Sorrowing Seniors Assemble for Solemn Services. Sober Repast Followed by Learned Discourses.

It is rumored that the Senior Class held a Banquet Saturday night.

Rumor hath it further that the affair was more or less of a disappointment and that those who hoped for the forthcoming of unlimited "pep" had to content themselves with the customary farewell speeches. The Seniors without exception, have spent the past two days desperately endeavoring to convey the impression that there was something doing and that the Class had actually distinguished itself at the Hotel Utica Saturday night. Some members of the Class go so far as to aver that the banquet was not the cut-and-dried affair it was intended to be, but investigations by a Life reporter confirm the common belief that there was little stirring.

1913 made its "get-away" from the Hill with neatness and dispatch. Shortly after 5 o'clock groups of men were seen making their way through the Root property down into the ravine and thence to Franklin Springs. Here a special train on the O. & W. was waiting and at 6.30 o'clock, the Faculty having been completely eluded, the entire class piled into the hotel and without delay made its way to the Italian room. There were no stops.

The first course was eaten in silence; so also was the second. Only the Pride-of-Pasedena chewing celery broke the sympathetic silence of the meat course. He was sternly reproved. The man who recommended a Maxim silencer went unheard. The class was not there for noise. Even the Root fellow was silent.

The voice of the president introducing the first speaker was greeted with frowns. The president begged the class' pardon, then presented C. D. Wheelock. His subject was "The Relation of the Moral Governor to the Problems of Moral Life." The speech which Wheelock gave the reporters is now on exhibition at the Life office. Westley Ingersoll spoke feelingly on "The Necessity of the Categorical Imperative," and was followed by E. Hughes Simonds, who confined his remarks to "The Period: How and Where to Use It."

The gathering dispersed shortly after 8 o'clock. Several of the men attended a theatrical performance but most of the class took the eight-fifteen car for the Hill.

The committee in charge of the services consisted of Barber, Wenigmann and Batchelor.

The Freshman speakers who will compete tomorrow for Prize Stage are: Callahan, Fenn, Gardner, Hawley, Holt, Jones, McLean, McLouth, Muir, and Robson. The Junior trials were held on Saturday.

—New Hymnals were installed in the Chapel last Thursday morning. The old Hymnals have been sent to Berea and Clark Colleges at Berea, Ky., and Waukesha, Wis.
